

Media Release – For immediate release

14 November 2022

CIVIL CONTRACTORS FEDERATION WELCOMES NEW NATIONAL PRESIDENT AND BOARD MEMBERS

Australia's peak industry body for the civil construction sector, Civil Contractors Federation National (CCF) is pleased to announce the composition of its newly appointed National Board following its Board meeting in Canberra on Friday 11 November 2022.

Civil Contractors Federation National Board

Mick Boyle	- President (CCF NSW)
Antony Damiani	- Vice President (CCF VIC)
Nick Zardo	- Treasurer (CCF ACT)
Gladys Woods	- CCF NSW
Michael Cull	- CCF NT
David Moody	- CCF QLD
Mick Unger	- CCF WA
Charles Hatcher	- CCF SA
Bill Abbott	- CCF TAS

Newly elected CCF National President Mick Boyle congratulated Antony Damiani, CCF VIC on his election as Vice President, the reelection of Nick Zardo as Treasurer, and also welcomed Gladys Woods, CCF NSW, to the National Board saying that, "Gladys brings a wealth of experience to the position and her understanding of the critical issues affecting civil construction companies will be an asset to the CCF National Board."

Mr. Boyle also thanked outgoing CCF National Board member David Della Bona, CCF WA, saying that "David has made an enormous contribution on behalf of the Western Australian civil construction industry, and I thank him for his service."

Mr Boyle also paid tribute to outgoing National President, Mick Unger, who served in that position since 2016.

"Mick has made an enormous contribution to CCF, and his leadership has helped strengthen our position as the peak national industry body for the civil construction sector, providing a clear, unified and strong voice on behalf of the sector," he said.

"I am grateful Mr. Unger will remain on the National Board, and I look forward to working with him and my fellow Board members to improve the strength and sustainability of Australia's civil construction sector," he said.

For more information, download the Civil Contractors Federation National Annual Report (click here) .

Contact: Duncan Sheppard, CCF National Senior Policy and Communications Advisor, 0438 330 039

"The peak voice of the Civil Construction Sector"